

Respiratory structures.

- _____ 1. In the nasal cavity, air passes over the _____.
- _____ 2. The nasal cavity is separated from the oral cavity by the _____.
- _____ 3. The nasal cavity and the oral cavity join to form the _____.
- _____ 4. The inferior openings of the pharynx open into the _____ and the _____.
- _____ a. The opening from the pharynx into the respiratory passages is the _____.
- _____ b. The glottis can be covered by the _____.
- _____ 5. The trachea is held open by rings of _____.
- _____ 6. The trachea divides into two _____.
- _____ 7. After several branchings, the bronchi lead into _____.
- _____ 8. The bronchioles lead into the structures where gas is exchanged, called _____.