

Directed Reading B continued

- c. 8. What should you do if you find a backpack, your lunch, and your math book on your lab work area?
- Leave them there so they won't get lost.
 - Use them in the activity.
 - Clear them away so they won't be in the way.
 - Find out who put them there.
- b. 9. If you need to handle chemicals, animals, or insects, you should
- use your apron to hold them.
 - wear protective gloves.
 - get someone else to handle them for you.
 - stop working on the activity.
- d. 10. What should you do with glassware at the end of an activity?
- Ask your lab partner what to do with it.
 - Take it home.
 - Throw it in the garbage.
 - Wash it, and check it for cracks and chips.

11. What are the rules for handling animals used in science activities?

Wear gloves so that you don't infect the animal with your own body germs. Also do not shake or abuse the animals and keep them safe in their cages when not in use.

Match the correct example with the correct element of safety. Write the letter in the space provided.

- | | |
|---|---|
| c. 12. preparing data tables and gathering safety equipment | a. recognizing safety symbols |
| b. 13. reading all instructions before beginning a science lab | b. reading and following directions |
| a. 14. recognizing what a picture of a hand means | c. practicing neatness |
| e. 15. wiping your work area with a wet paper towel | d. using proper safety equipment |
| d. 16. wearing goggles and an apron | e. following proper cleanup procedures |

Directed Reading B continued

PROPER ACCIDENT PROCEDURES

17. List in the correct order the four steps to do after an accident.

1. remain calm and assess the situation
2. secure the area around the accident
3. tell the teacher or call for help
4. assist your teacher with cleaning up

18. Why should you know where emergency equipment is kept?

So you can get to it quickly without the emergency getting too worse.

PROPER FIRST-AID PROCEDURES

19. What is first aid?

The first steps you take to reduce and prevent injuries

Match the correct injury with the correct first-aid procedure. Write the letter in the space provided.

- | | | |
|----|-----------------------------|---|
| d. | 20. small cuts | a. Rinse area with running water. |
| c. | 21. chemical in eye | b. Hold affected area under cold, running water for at least 15 minutes. |
| b. | 22. minor heat-related burn | c. Rinse with running water or in an eyewash. |
| a. | 23. chemicals on skin | d. Clean area, cover with a clean cloth or gauze pad, and apply pressure. |